

2021 AMPIA BOARD SLATE

Three Board Positions are open for election at this year's AGM.

The Slate of Nominees put forward by the Nominating Committee:

Producer Seat:

Adam Scorgie

Non-Designate Seats:

Chris Duncan

Justine Gamez-Huckabay

Slate Nominees

CHRIS DUNCAN Passionate Communications and Media Executive with 30 + years of experience in business development, broadcasting and people management. Customer-focused entrepreneur with an expansive list of professional contacts in business, industry, politics and media. Superior communications and interpersonal skills with a high level of integrity. Demonstrated expertise in: Human Resources; Strategic Planning; Networking; Project Management; Negotiation; Cold Calling; Video Production; Live and Virtual Events and Social Media.

Recent positions include:

Production World, Edmonton - Director of Studio Services (current)
Shaw TV, Western Canada - Regional Television Manager
CityTV, Calgary - News Director/Operations Manager
CityTV-A-Channel, Edmonton - News Director

JUSTINE GAMEZ-HUCKABAY Justine Gamez-Huckabay is the President & Founder of Intercommunicate, a strategic marketing and communications firm helping entertainment and technology clients navigate international media. Justine is an Award Winning International Publicist, who worked in Worldwide Marketing for Warner Bros. Pictures in Los Angeles. She led successful theatrical film campaigns such as The Hobbit trilogy, Gravity, Argo, Man Of Steel, San Andreas, among others. Her extensive global media experience was established through daily communication with top-tier international media in 75+ territories and consistent travel to key film markets, 15+ countries each year across North and South America, Europe, Asia, Middle East and Pacific. Justine has worked on over 100 projects from films to episodic content, commercial blockbusters to artistic festival selections promoting them all over the world. In addition to working with traditional content, Justine is passionate about the convergence of entertainment and technology working with new media formats. She promotes XR works internationally at events including Sundance Film Festival, SXSW, Tribeca Film Festival and Venice Film Festival. She started her career at 20th Century Fox in New York and Paramount Pictures in Los Angeles.

ADAM SCORGIE plan A has always been to work hard, be humble and take chances; and it has worked tremendously to date. A father of 3, a loving husband and an acclaimed documentarian, Adam has an astonishing ability to balance his relentless work schedule and his invaluable family time. To date, Adam has produced ten feature films, with two features currently in post-production including ‘Inmate #1: The Rise of Danny Trejo’ and ‘Bisping’, an in-depth look at the life of UFC legend Michael Bisping. His leadership and loyalty to his team has ensured that his future films guarantee to impress and inspire those who watch them.